

The Temple of Elemental Weevils

SPECIAL ONLINE EDITION

Setting:

Having woken from a drunken stupor, you realize grimly you are hanging in a small dank cell. It smells of fetid water and human excretions, bringing back fond memories of your mother's cooking. The cold wall bites into the naked flesh of your back.

Adventure:

Having been accused of a crime of which you have no recollection, and that is too impolite to describe here, you are forced, as your sentence, by the Lord Mayor to cleanse the ancient Tower of Mystical Happenings of the annoying otherworldly creatures within - the Elemental Weevils.
